A Note

Welcome to Lash and Company Education! I am honored for Lash and Company to join you on your learning journey. Since 2006, I was inspired by my grandmother (who is in her 80s and still practicing esthetics in Santa Barbara, CA today) to become an esthetician to help pay my way through college. I fell in love with the industry, the innovation, technology, and the clients. We are privileged to work with clients that are happy, healthy and excited to see us. It's very rewarding to nurture and care for one another.

The learning never ends. I value growth and development above all else. I believe pursuing the best version of myself is a purposeful and successful life. I believe in abundance. I believe that I am the equivalent of the value I add to the world.

With Gratitude,

BAILEY AMES
